The City Manager reviewed the agenda for the upcoming regular business meeting, noting the agenda previously distributed to Council had been amended to include an updated code amendment for “Animals” that incorporated council changes requested during the June 13, 2022 business meeting.

The Community Development Director reviewed the code amendment for parking maximum and a procedural change related to subdivision approvals.

A presentation will be made regarding the housing market in Waynesboro was developed at the City Manager’s request, including housing availability and affordability.

Due to the General Assembly law that all elections be held in November, Council will be asked to consider maintaining the current Council or to have a vote for mayor and vice mayor that would be effective July to December and repeat the action in January, 2023.

The Assistant City Manager Finance then reviewed the ordinances on the upcoming agenda.

The Assistant City Manager Public Safety will address the noise ordinance in the first or second July meeting.
